Dear Rob,

We cannot express how much you inspired all of us with your talk at our staff appreciation dinner. As a service agency working with children and families, you were able to bring both elements together to deliver an impactful talk on how our interactions with children and with their families are so important on a daily basis. You õhit the nail on the headö with your discussion of having high expectations for others as you demonstrated that yourself with your life. Comments by staff and board members were nothing but raving!

Thank you for sharing your stories with us. I believe that all who were there left with a greater appreciation of their role in the lives of others, and how they can continue to provide that to others. We are all excited for your next book to come out!
