Rob Oliver presented his motivational talk centered on “living life to the fullest” to our members at today’s meeting. We found him to be both enlightening and enjoyable; to the extent that many of our members lined up after the meeting to talk with Rob and purchase his book, Still Walking.

Additionally, several of our members spoke with Rob about coming to speak to other organizations they are involved with.

I urge all organizations to have Rob energize their membership with his uplifting message!

Sincerely,

Gary Rosensteel
